Winter Storage Policy

Keep for future reference.

The Clinton County Fair Board offers winter storage for motorhomes, campers, boats, jet skis, motorcycles, vehicles, lawn mowers, UTVs, etc.

Storage rates will be at one time charge of $15 per linear foot (end of hitch to bumper or bumper to bumper). There will be additional charge of $3 per linear per month for items stored beyond the winter storage season. Items will be put in storage the 1st & 2nd WEEKENDS OF NOVEMBER and taken out first two weeks of April and must be off the grounds by April 12th. Items may be left parked in the grass south of the Swine Building up to one week before being put in the building and one week after being taken out. Contact Mark Schutt at 641-590-5655 if you have any questions or concerns.

YOU MUST PROVIDE THE ITEMS LISTED BELOW. All must be received before storing item(s).

- A COMPLETED CONTRACT for each item stored.
- PAYMENT in full. Make check payable to: Clinton County Fair.
- CERTIFICATE OF LIABILITY listing the Clinton County Agricultural Society as an Additional Insured. This is not just a copy of your policy. Your agent may email or mail this directly to the fair office.

While items are in winter storage the following rules should be followed.

- Stored items should not contain fuel. All removable fuel tanks should be removed.
- Do not plug in stored items.
- Disconnect any batteries in stored items.
- Do not start any motorized items while stored in storage building.
- In the event of an emergency leave key in ignition while stored.
